

Reggie HARRIS

SMOOTH JAZZ SAXOPHONIST

Pure Passion. Timeless Sound.

“ Reggie captivates his audience with pure passion exemplified in multiplied and was inspired by the likes of the great Grover Washington, and the music of Gerald Albright. ”

ABOUT REGGIE

🎷 Reggie was born and raised in Chesapeake, Virginia and started playing the saxophone at the age of 10. He continued playing and began showcasing his great talent outside of school with local bands. This was where it all started and his musical journey is currently leading him to solo artistry.

🎵 After relocating to New Jersey from Virginia in 1984, his musical ambition continued and by popular demand, Reggie performed at many local and area events.

🎷 In 2001, Reggie, with long time close friend, Ron Segers; formed Zoe', and was fortunate enough to have played with musicians, Alex Bugnon, Sherry Winston, Blues and Guitar player, Keb'mo, Michael Manson, Vincent Ingala, Gail Jhonson (music director for Norman Brown) and many other great musicians. He's played at the Catalina Jazz Festival, Rehoboth Beach Jazz Fest and the Berks Jazz Festival.

🎧 Reggie is recording his solo project, which will be released worldwide later this year.

★ Reggie is managed exclusively by Viaggio Artist Management.
